MIKAELA

Dear Friend:

The SALON CARNAVAL is going "Spanish", this time bringing to you, direct from Madrid, famous singer and movie star MIKAELA, on a three-week engagement commencing Saturday, April 9.

MIKAELA, who was born in Seville, studied singing and dancing since she was a little girl. She moved to Madrid where she immediately became a huge success through her appearance in Bobby Deglane's famed "Week-end Cavalcade" - making thirty consecutive appearances, something never achieved by any other entertainer.

From then on, MIKAELA's has been an amazing story of success! Snapping the lead in "PLEITO DEL ULTIMO CUPLE" at Goya Theater in Madrid placed her among the most coveted stars in Spain and Europe. In Mexico, she went on a TV contract and remained for a year filming three movies and making numerous nightclub appearances. She played the female lead in the film "The Life of Agustín Lara".

Since her return to Spain, the beautiful singer-dancer-actress has played the lead in six movies, two of which are just being released: "La Rosa Roja", "Vampiresas 1930", "La Reina del Tabarín", "Gringo", "Las Tres Espadas del Zorro" and "Mademoiselle de Maupin". Radio-Madrid awarded her that media's most coveted prize (a silver plaque) for being top interpreter of song of the year and also in record sales.

Appearing with MIKAELA is Spanish dancing team MARILIA MONTAN and MARCOS ALVAR.

Sincerely

Fabiola R. Brown
